Report description:

The growth in retail volume for tea in 2023 resulted from affordable prices and perceived health benefits, with tea aligning with the rising interest in health and wellness among consumers. As such, players marketed their teas as improving immunity and alleviating discomfort. Additionally, as consumers spent more time within the home during COVID-19, many enjoyed new tea consumption experiences. As such, the change in consumption during COVID-19 continued to stimulate off-trade tea sales after t...
