Report description:

Sales in fruits are seeing a mixed performance, as the category finds a balance between value and volume - lower unit prices support volume growth, whereas inflationary pressures mean higher value but lower volume consumption, especially regarding more luxury products. In this sense, fruits with plentiful local harvests, and/or those seen as "basic" (eg apples) will be more popular than those which need to be imported and thus incur additional costs in transport, storage, ripening, etc (eg banan...
