Report description:

Processed meat, seafood, and alternatives to meat is set to experience retail current value growth in 2023, driven by increasing volume sales. The rise in demand can be attributed to the trend of cooking at home amongst consumers due to the higher cost of living. Meanwhile, current value growth is set to be higher than volume, as the overall unit prices of these products have seen a slight increase. Increasing energy prices and labour costs have been contributing to the overall rise in unit price...
