Report description:

Analgesics experienced a rise in unit prices due to inflationary pressure, which pushed up the price of imported medications and locally-produced options. Current value growth accelerated in 2023 as a result of this trend. Brand loyalty remains strong in analgesics, especially for brands that have proven efficacy, with some consumers choosing not to trade down to cheaper brands. Moreover, there are a range of analgesics products that cater to different income profiles in Kenya, enabling all cons...
