Report description:

Baked goods in Brazil during 2022 was impacted by higher input prices that were also observed in different consumer goods categories, especially for wheat prices, freight constraints and other inputs. Although Brazilian wheat production recorded record highs in 2022, a proportion was exported by farmers who wanted to take advantage of international prices and the Brazilian/US dollar exchange rate. Throughout 2023, inflationary pressures cooled, especially for food and nutritional goods, thereby...
