Report description:

Retail volume sales of coffee saw a stagnant performance in 2023, as the high cost of living affected consumer purchasing behaviour. Forced to spend more on utilities and food, Latvians shifted away towards more affordable products. The market also suffered from a high degree of saturation, with a declining consumer base, due to demographic changes. Nonetheless, on-trade volume sales of coffee continued to register healthy volume growth in 2023, following the ending of pandemic related restricti...
