Report description:

Continuing the pattern seen in 2022, sales of eggs recorded steady growth in retail volume terms in 2023. The growing popularity of eggs in Mexico at the end of the review period was linked to the fact that these products provide a more affordable source of protein than alternatives such as meat, fish and seafood. In fact, Mexico is the world's largest consumer of eggs with these products being used in a wide variety of popular local dishes at various mealtimes. As such, eggs was in a good posit...
