Report description:

Retail volume sales of hot drinks in Latvia saw a static performance in 2023, as the high rate of inflation weighed heavily on consumer spending. With consumers forced to spend more on utilities and food, they shifted away from premium brands and towards lower-priced products. The market also suffered from a high degree of saturation, which resulted in frequent promotional offers and discounts, particular in the case of coffee, where regular shelf prices were rendered largely irrelevant.

Euromonitor International's Hot Drinks in Latvia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
