Report description:

Sauces, dips and condiments saw another year of growth in both retail volume and retail value terms in 2023. Sauces remains the biggest contributor to the category's development, specifically soy sauce products. The foodservice channel experienced higher volume growth than the retail channel during the year. The consumer foodservice industry's general return to positive growth, which started at the end of 2022, was one of the main reasons for the category's development. As people eat out more, i...
