Report description:

Sales of sugar and sweeteners in Spain continued to decline in retail volume terms in 2023, albeit at a far more modest rate than in the previous two years. Although sugar and sweeteners saw positive growth in current value terms in 2023 this was largely due to rising prices rather than an increase in demand. These price rises are partly due to inflation and rising production costs, but they are also due to Spanish consumers displaying a growing inclination towards value-added offerings that ali...
