Report description:

In 2023, consumer appliances in Taiwan posted slower retail volume and value growth compared to the previous year, with sales negatively impacted by inflationary pressure, the slowdown in the local real estate market, and a spending shift from goods to services. This spending shift was driven by the lifting of COVID-19 restrictions in 2022, with consumers keen to travel abroad and spend more time eating outside of the home, therefore reducing spending and postponing purchases of consumer appliances.

Euromonitor International's Consumer Appliances in Taiwan report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, format trends or distribution issues. Forecasts to 2028 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Major Appliances, Small Appliances.
