Report description:

The post-pandemic era in 2023 has ushered in changes in consumption and dining habits, marked by a greater emphasis on the quality and unique presentation of dishes when dining out. The trend of ordering delivery has continued to gain traction. Notably, external factors like climate events, the Russian invasion of Ukraine, and high inflation have led to a rise in raw material prices, particularly affecting imported ingredients. Consequently, businesses in the food and beverage industry have face...
