Report description:

The South & Central America brain health supplements market is expected to grow from US$ 655.64 million in 2022 to US$ 1,206.94 million by 2028. It is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 10.7% from 2022 to 2028.

Emerging Markets in Developing Countries Fuels South & Central America Brain Health Supplements Market

Leading companies in the brain health supplements market are focused on increasing their penetration across emerging markets by expanding their distribution networks and augmenting their manufacturing capabilities. Emerging markets in Brazil are expected to offer potential growth opportunities to key brain health supplement manufacturers in the future. This can be attributed to the availability of a large patient pool with the growing elderly population; high prevalence of depression, anxiety, mood swings, and other mental and cognitive disorders; increasing levels of disposable income; and improving infrastructure in the healthcare sector.

Further, high investments by governments in these countries in life science and health research favor the upgrading of facilities
