Report description:

The return to relatively normal lifestyles, similar to those seen before the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, helped to stimulate a recovery in the demand for jewellery in 2021 and 2022, following the 2020 slump. With people returning to the office and business meetings, as well as social events and celebrations, there were more opportunities to wear costume and fine jewellery. Furthermore, consumers mixed more frequently with family and friends, which led to an increase in gift purchases. The r...
