Report description:

The shift in consumer preference towards preferring experiences, and products that provide experiences, such as travelling, or purchasing a home, rather than owning things, is continuing to have a negative impact on sales of jewellery in the UK. Nevertheless, the category is expected to be able to maintain retail volume growth in 2023, primarily thanks to costume jewellery, which is set to maintain a good performance thanks to its versatility, trendy designs, and more affordable prices when comp...
