Report description:

With the waning effects of Coronavirus (COVID-19), airlines is set to perform well in 2023. Having easily exceeded 2019 pre-pandemic value (constant 2023 prices) sales in 2022, dynamic, if slower, growth is expected over the final year of the review period. While both domestic and international flights are performing well, the latter are set to post considerably higher increments in terms of number of passengers and values sales and growth, as international tourists have started travelling again...
