Report description:

Both foodservice and retail packaging unit volumes for alcoholic drinks saw major declines in Indonesia in 2020 when the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country and restrictions on mobility and foodservice were imposed. However, in both 2021 and 2022, strong growth has been seen in both foodservice and retail volume sales. Consumers were able to visit bars and restaurants once again and did so. However, despite the reopening of foodservice, and even though there was strong growth in foodservice alcoho...
