Report description:

Vietnam's GDP is predicted to grow by approximately 4.5% by the end of 2023 according to the country's General Statistical Office, which is less than the 6.5% predicted at the start of the year. Due to the impact of price inflation, consumers are adopting a more prudent approach to their spending with many people being focused on increasing their savings and reducing their expenditure on non-essential items, including when it comes to apparel and footwear.

Euromonitor International's Apparel and Footwear in Vietnam report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
