Report description:

Childrenswear saw a strong decline in retail volume terms in 2023 as demand fell due to consumers struggling to manage their finances as soaring inflation impacted the market. The inflationary conditions were driven primarily by the depreciation of the local currency but were further exacerbated by a hike in fuel prices during 2023. Importers struggled with a strong rise in import costs due to the naira depreciating against the dollar, leading to a strong rise in unit prices. Childrenswear in Ni...
