Report description:

Womenswear is experiencing double-digit growth rate in 2023, following notable declines the previous year. Tourist consumption historically accounted for 20-30% of pre-pandemic sales in Hong Kong, and the return of tourists is set to become the main driver of womenswear's gradual recovery. In particular, high-spending tourists can help accelerate the recovery for premium womenswear, despite the fact that luxury shopping in Hong Kong is gradually losing its attractiveness due to a high foreign ex...
