Report description:

Womenswear in Thailand is seeing a shift in demand towards multi-purpose products. Although fashion remains the key concern when people are purchasing womenswear, consumers are also showing more concern with regard to the item's functionality. This is especially true with regard to comfort and the ease at which the item can be mixed and matched with different outfits. This is in part a consequence of consumers spending more time at home working/studying during the pandemic. With many consumers c...
