Report description:

After seeing a growth spike in 2021, facial care product packaging continued to see strong growth in 2022. This can be attributed to the increasing beauty consciousness among consumers, evolving preferences for personalised skin care routines, the influence of international brands with a wide range of facial care products, the introduction of innovative product formats, and the emphasis on marketing and visual appeal. For example, Farmec is a well-established Romanian cosmetics brand that offers...
