Report description:

The pandemic and subsequent lockdowns resulted in many changes in consumer habits, the impacts of which are still being felt throughout the consumer foodservice industry. One of these changes has been the increase in the number of consumers dining out alone, rather than as a couple or in a group. Research by pricing platform, EatClub, has revealed an increase in the amount of restaurant bookings made for one, while bookings for couples and groups has declined. Post-pandemic, local consumers have...
