Report description:

Following the boost to volume sales in the retail channel in 2020 when the pandemic first arrived in the Netherlands and the increased time being spent at home by Dutch consumers, sales continued to decline in 2022 as foodservice consumption continued to return to pre-pandemic levels. As a result, unit volume sales of key pack types in the category - flexible plastic and folding cartons - declined over the previous year. During the pandemic, retail hot drinks sales saw a marked spike in demand a...
