Report description:

Plant-based milk has gained traction in Thailand due to a growing awareness of health and environmental concerns. Many Thai consumers are increasingly adopting plant-based diets for various reasons, including lactose intolerance, dietary restrictions or ethical considerations. Plant-based milk, such as almond, soy and coconut milk, is seen as a healthier alternative to traditional dairy, as it is often lower in saturated fats and cholesterol.

Euromonitor International's Plant-based Dairy Packaging in Thailand report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Product coverage: Plant-based Cheese, Plant-based Milk, Plant-based Yoghurt.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
