Report description:

Processed fruit and vegetables in Indonesia witnessed dramatically higher unit price hikes in 2023 than it saw in 2022, though volume demand remained sustained. This was partly thanks to independent foodservice operators who have been investing in expanding in their operations to meet rising demand of fully mobile consumers in 2023, with these players typically purchasing from retail channels. Shelf-stable fruit and vegetables are particularly versatile and ready for immediate use in beverages a...
