Report description:

In 2020, when the COVID-19 pandemic emerged in Sweden, fears of contracting the disease and restrictions on mobility in the country led to an increased interest in home cooking. Sauces, dips and condiments consequently saw dynamic growth in packaging volumes, as consumers appreciated the convenience of these products in their cooking. In 2021 and 2022, however, as consumers resumed their busy lifestyles and began to travel once again, home cooking occasions declined, and packaging volumes in the...
