Report description:

While soft drinks in Kenya continued to develop positively in total volume sales terms in 2023, growth was weaker than in 2022. This was partly attributable to increasing maturity, but mainly due to the spike in inflation fuelled by the global recovery from the pandemic and the fallout of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. As the cost of living soared and purchasing power fell, most people became more inclined to rein in discretionary spending. As a result, several categories experienced a slowdown i...
