Report description:

PET bottles are the dominant pack type used for soft drinks in South Africa, as they are cost-effective, both in terms of production and transportation. The lightweight nature of the bottles reduces transportation costs, making them a practical option for manufacturers and retailers. PET bottles are also easy to produce and can be manufactured in various shapes and sizes, making them suitable for different types of soft drinks. In addition, the cost-effectiveness of PET bottles is passed on to c...
