Report description:

Packaging unit volumes in Switzerland's overall soft drinks market saw even faster growth in 2022 than they had done a year earlier, but they still remained below pre-pandemic levels. The strong growth was mainly due to the ongoing recovery of sales in the foodservice channel in 2022, which was disproportionally affected during the COVID-19-induced lockdowns in 2020, when it lost almost a quarter of its unit volumes. Retail sales continued growing throughout the pandemic, although packaging unit...
