Report description:

Strongly affected by the pandemic, cafes/bars recorded double-digit growth in 2023, surpassing pre-pandemic values. Inflation and the rising costs of coffee among producers, led to an increase in sales, not reflected in profitability. In fact, the number of transactions remained lower than 2019 figures in 2023, with even good results generated by the tourism industry not enough to enable the category to fully recover. The pandemic significantly changed the consumption habits of Portuguese people...
