Report description:

The travel and tourism industry has shown a strong recovery across 2021 and 2022 and in 2023, it was very close to reaching pre-pandemic value sales levels. As such, consumer food service through travel was the best-performing non-stand-alone category in 2023, with food service value sales growing by a quarter. In addition, lodging and travel locations combined, account for 15% of total market sales and 10% of transactions, an increase of approximately 2% compared to 2021. However, the number of...
