Report description:

Limited-service restaurants continued to see positive value growth in 2023, although this was partly fuelled by the continued high levels of inflation, which translated into price increases. As a result of the economic downturn and high inflation, many consumers have limited expenditure on eating out, with many cooking more and dining out less. The downturn in the Swedish economy had begun to influence spending patterns from the latter part of 2022, with even affordable choices being hit. High i...
