Report description:

Self-service cafeterias have already seen value sales recover to pre-pandemic levels in Norway, aided by the growth of new developments. After the initial shock in 2020, sales recovered well in 2021 followed by a strong rebound in 2022. Self-service cafeterias have recently received a boost from the higher spend per transaction value, with younger chains like Sabrura gaining appeal in Norway and certain players enjoying solid growth rates. However, in transaction terms, volumes are still lower t...
