Report description:

Self-services cafeterias is growing, pushed by high inflation rates, increasing highway traffic, and positive growth of tourism. The category continues to be characterised by a dichotomy. For instance, on one hand, it features brands such as Ikea Restaurant, which focus on low average ticket prices and competes with limited-service restaurants. On the other hand, there are motorway operators, which have prices above the market average in terms of comparable products. Both elements recorded growt...
