Report description:

Because self-service cafeterias have a comparatively affordable positioning and are perceived to offer good value for money, this category was not as negatively affected by the cost-of-living crisis as some other areas of the Czech foodservice market in 2023. It was also well placed to profit from the increased demand for quick and convenient dining experiences as the pace of life in the country accelerated in line with the resumption of pre-pandemic routines. Nonetheless, current value and tran...
