Report description:

The major storyline for self-service cafeterias in the US in 2023 was its continued rebound as pandemic-era health restrictions receded. Self-service cafeterias was particularly hard-hit in the depths of the pandemic, due to logistical concerns about spreading the virus due to the format of this channel. As the pandemic receded, in 2022 most restaurants opened up with few to no restrictions - apart from the challenges of the Omicron variant in the winter months at the beginning of the year. 2023...
