Report description:

Street stalls/kiosks continued to see positive value growth in 2023, largely due to Sweden's continued high inflation rate, which led to price increases. As a result of the economic downturn and high costs of living many locals chose not to eat out as much, leading to slower transaction growth. Street stalls/kiosks witnessed a strong recovery from the pandemic in 2022, following a partial recovery in 2021, with consumers spending more time outside and shifting back to eating at street stalls/kio...
