Report description:

Though not immune from the cost-of-living crisis, street stalls/kiosks was among the categories that profited most in 2023 as rising prices and falling disposable incomes made Czech consumers more inclined to favour cheaper foodservice options. It was also a major beneficiary of the return to normal routines in the wake of COVID-19, as these types of businesses are heavily reliant on foot traffic, and many derive a large share of their revenues from lunchtime trade and impulse purchases.
