Military Transport Aircraft Market Trends

Europe is the largest Region

- Military transport aircraft accounted for 8% of the global military aircraft fleet in 2021. The international security horizon in the second half of 2021 was marked by escalating conflicts, geopolitical, and border issues, with major confrontations such as between Russia and Ukraine, India, China, and other nations in Asia-Pacific. The armed conflicts and internal security boosted defense expenditures globally, with countries strengthening their armed forces with new procurements of transport aircraft.

- The world defense expenditure crossed over USD 2 trillion in 2021, with major military powers, such as the United States, surging their defense budget by 3%, from USD 778 billion in 2020 to over USD 800 billion in 2021. The United States was followed by China, India, Russia, and the United Kingdom, which also increased their defense expenditures by 14%, 5%, 6.8%, and 13%, respectively.
- In 2022, the war between Russia and Ukraine fueled the need to reassess the operational readiness of the armed forces globally. Groups such as NATO nations are undergoing fleet modernization and expansion programs with new procurement of transport aircraft.
- The active fleet of military transport aircraft grew by around 0.4% from 2016 to 2021. North America and Asia-Pacific are accountable for 24% and 23% of the total transport aircraft active fleet globally.
