Report description:

Compared to many other areas of home care, air care was relatively resilient to inflationary pressures, reporting a slight increase in retail volume. During the pandemic, long periods of home seclusion changed the way many people viewed their living environment, with health and wellbeing becoming increasingly important. This helped to generate increased demand for a variety of air care products, especially those with a luxurious feel, and this trend continued into 2023. Identifying this trend, s...
