Report description:

Candle and electric air fresheners became increasingly popular among Czech consumers in 2023, as many looked for cheap but highly convenient products. This helped air care to record positive retail volume growth during a time of rising price points. However, retail volume growth was still low, adversely affected by the fact that air care products are generally deemed non-essential and are, therefore, easy for consumers to reject in favour of items such as cleaning and washing products during per...
