Report description:

Home care in Belgium remained under pressure in 2023, with high inflation leading to price hikes and consumers prioritising their spending in order to save money. As a result, many consumers bought and used home care products with much less frequency than usual during the year. Those categories whose products are often regarded as non-essential, such as toilet care and polishes, suffered significantly. Meanwhile, in laundry care players focused on increasing the concentration levels of their lau...
