Report description:

Following a year of robust growth in 2022, home care recorded strong current retail value sales in 2023. High immigration rates in Canada boosted value consumption, as newcomers needed to purchase home care goods. However, retail value growth was primarily driven by inflationary price increases, and as such, retail volume sales were challenged. High inflation rates impacted all household necessities, such as groceries, in addition to rent and house prices. This led to a lack of affordable housin...
