Report description:

The high cost of living in Colombia has forced many consumers to focus on basic home care products and goods when shopping, which has had a slight impact on home insecticides. The category has also been affected by the shortage of rain in areas like Santander and the Coast, leading to lower product turnover. However, the rainy season, which falls in the second half of the year in Colombia, typically leads to a higher incidence of insect problems in homes. Within insecticides, electric products h...
