Report description:

Although retail value sales were double-digit in 2023, retail volume sales were much lower, with a decline noted in insecticide coils. Insecticide coils suffered from fewer mosquitoes in 2023 due to the weak summer season. In addition, consumers were often not interested in coils and ignored the problem of flying insects, which led to the volume sales decline. With high inflation and lower purchasing power, many consumers switched to more affordable options to deal with home insecticides. Additi...
