Report description:

High inflation fuelled retail value growth in 2023, leading to double-digit value results for laundry care. Despite the price increases, sub- categories such as hand wash detergent and bar soap registered retail volume growth due to their essential nature. The country's population is growing, which continues to drive growth despite low purchasing power, as washing clothes frequently and essential. However, aside from bar soap and hand wash detergents, other categories recorded a retail volume de...
