Report description:

Laundry care registered a fall in volume sales in 2023, as a result of a significant number of consumers crossing the border into Argentina to buy laundry care products. Although inflation has soared in Argentina, the depreciation rate against the Uruguayan peso has made laundry care products purchased in Argentina much cheaper than products purchased locally. As a result, consumers living in cities close to the Argentinean border capitalised on the beneficial price differential. This in particu...
