Report description:

The economic impact of measures introduced to limit the spread of COVID-19, along with soaring inflation in 2023, have undermined consumer confidence and purchasing power. As a result, many consumers remain focused on spending on essential items. At the same time, consumers' priorities have shifted even further towards hygiene. This shift was reinforced by the fact that socialising, both in public and at home, came to an abrupt halt during the pandemic, weakening demand for products with a prima...
