Report description:

While surface care registered double-digit percentage value growth, volume was more muted and was partly supported by continuing population growth. While multi-purpose cleaners continued to account for most value sales, bathroom cleaners were the best performers in terms of value growth. Colgate-Palmolive continues to have a strong lead and gained further value share in 2023. Its competitive prices as well as extensive distribution and ongoing innovation has cemented its position. However, local...
